WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

We collect information from you when you register on our website or fill out a form for the processing of your settlement. This policy applies both to online and offline information collected. When ordering or registering on our site, as appropriate, you may be asked to enter your name or email address, or you may visit our site anonymously.

The nature of our business is to record legal documents among the public land records. As a result of these recordings your name, address, purchase price of the property involved and mortgage amount (as applicable) will be publicly available and will be purchased by third party mailing services.

Any of the information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways: to process your transaction, to personalize your experience, to improve our website and to improve our customer service. Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever without your consent other than for the express purpose of delivering the services we provide.

The email address you provide for order processing may be used to send you information and updates pertaining to your order, to provide you with important information relevant to our business, administer a contest, promotion or survey, in addition to receiving occasional company news, updates and related service information. If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, we include detailed unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of each email.

We implement a variety of security measure to maintain the safety of your personal information. We do not use cookies.

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information. This does not include trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect our or other's rights, property, or safety. However, non- personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses.
